From other cities:

You can access to Antalya city by four different directions:
- Highway connecting Antalya to Anatolia, through Manavgat-Konya,
- Highway on the Eastside, along the Mediterranean cost, connecting Antalya to Mersin,
- Highway on the Westside, connecting Antalya to regions of Lycia, Ionia and Caria,
- From the North, main highway of Turkey, connecting Antalya to main Turkish cities: Izmir, Ankara and Istanbul.

All highways have a good quality.

Advice: You have to pay a fee to access to the highways (not expensive). You have to get a magnetic card to pay highway access with your personal car, called « KGS kartı ». This card is available in banks.

3. BY PUBLIC TRANSPORT

a- From Antalya airport:

Taxi between city and airport:
Face to terminal, official taxis, called ‘Antalya Airport Taxi Cooperation” are at your service. Taxi drivers are professional and, most of them speak different languages.

You can book a taxi on this website: http://www.voyagetransfers.com/En/index.html. A booking on this website will cost between 25 and 40 € (from private cab to taxivan for 6/7 people) from the airport to city centre.

Other taxis cost only 15€ from the airport to the old city of Antalya. You could find them at the airport terminal exit.

Rates are higher during the night (from midnight to 6:00 am). Plan to pay 5 to 10 € additional.

Bus between airport and city centre:

From the terminal, a bus drives you to the city centre at regular hours. You can go to airport website to check bus schedule: http://www.aytport.com/en/default.aspx.

Public buses are available from 6:00 am to 01:10 am. There is a bus every 20 minutes to drive you from the airport to Antalya city centre.

b- From Istanbul Airports:
